1983, 1984 and 1985 are 423 (2.51 per cent), 279 (7.37 per cent) and 231 (16.32 per cent) respectively.

3. While the number of physically handicapped persons appointed in Group 'D' posts in 1984 and 1985 is in excess of the prescribed reservation, where there is a slight shortfall as revealed by the figures given above, it is mainly due to the non-availability of suitable physically handicapped persons in a particular grade or post identified for them.
